JOB BANK www.aipn.org/jobs.aspx

Members can post resumes and view job listings on AIPN's Job Bank at www.aipn.org. This service allows students direct access to potential employers throughout the world. AIPN student members may post their resumes on the Web site, with the option of having them made available to the whole membership, or only to employers who have posted a job opening.

STUDENT WRITING COMPETITION

www.aipn.org/StudentComp.aspx

Every year, AIPN holds a Student Writing Competition for all full-time seniors in a four-year program and all graduate students enrolled at an accredited university. Students are able to choose a topic of their choice that is directly related to international petroleum negotiations.

Each year, up to two winners are selected and awarded free registration, transportation to, and hotel accommodations for the AIPN International Conference, as well as free membership for one year.

STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP www.aipn.org/ScholarshipProg.aspx

Created in 2009, the AIPN Scholarship Program awards well-qualified students in financial need who possess the potential to make a significant contribution to the field of international oil and gas negotiations. Up to eight scholarships are awarded annually in honor of long-time member and contributor Gordon Barrows.

Each scholarship is in the amount of $5,000, split $2,500 for each semester, and paid directly to the winner's university. Scholarship applications are reviewed annually by the student scholarship committee.

Qualified applicants may be working towards an energy, commercial, or law degree, but must be attending a university that supports the AIPN by having a professor on AIPN's Education Advisory Board.

The following criteria is used by the Scholarship Committee:

- Potential to make a significant contribution to the field of international oil and gas negotiations
 - Academic ability
 - Leadership and negotiation ability
 - Year in school
 - Financial need

STUDENT MEMBERSHIP

Student membership in the AIPN is available to persons who are enrolled in a college or university of higher learning. Applicants for student membership shall submit both a completed application bearing the reference of at least one active AIPN member, who is personally acquainted with the applicant, and evidence of student status, which may be in the form of a letter or other school record from that student's college or university. Student membership is $25 per year. Student members may also request a 5-year grace period after graduation to become an active AIPN member.

STUDENT OUTREACH PROGRAM

The AIPN Student Outreach Program brings together experienced international petroleum negotiators and students interested in careers in international petroleum negotiations, in order to encourage students to pursue careers in this challenging and rewarding field. Students represent the future of the international petroleum industry, and the AIPN believes it is important to encourage and mentor young, talented candidates enrolled in energy, commercial and law programs. AIPN does this by:

- Active AIPN members visiting universities
 - Encouraging formation of AIPN student clubs
 - Providing educational programs and networking opportunities
 - Awarding scholarships to deserving students
 - Assisting selected students to attend the AIPN Spring Conference
 - Offering discounted rates to AIPN events.
