

Association of International Petroleum Negotiators
STUDENT WRITING COMPETITION 2018-2019

AIPN has sponsored an annual student writing competition since 2001. The competition is open to all full-time seniors in a four-year program and all graduate students enrolled at an accredited university in either the fall 2018 or spring 2019 semesters. Essays should be an original work at editorial length (no more than 4,000 words, excluding footnotes) on any specific issue of the student's choice which is directly related to international petroleum negotiations, such as matters of contract, law or policy.

The essay should not exceed 4,000 words, excluding footnotes (approximately 12 double-spaced typed pages of text). Footnotes should be in Blue Book format and placed at the bottom of the page. The essay should be submitted in PDF or Word format.

All essays must be submitted to the AIPN by e-mail no later than November 12, 2018, accompanied by a current one page curriculum vitae of the author and his/her contact details. Applicants will be notified of the winners on or around January 21, 2019.

Students enrolled at schools associated with our Education Advisory Board program* must submit their papers to the professor representing the school in the program, who will submit the top four (4) papers from that school. Students who are not enrolled at schools represented by the AIPN Education Advisory Board may submit their essays directly to AIPN. Two prizes will be awarded, although AIPN reserves the right to award fewer than two or none at all, if it determines that none of the submitted entries justifies an award. Previous winners are not eligible to participate again. The essays will be reviewed by a committee comprised of educators, lawyers, business managers and international negotiators. Selection of the winning essays is solely at the discretion of the committee. Essays will be judged on topical relevance (is the topic useful to members of AIPN in their work?), originality of content, creativity, insight, clarity and support for viewpoints taken. Each student may submit only one entry. Essays become the property of AIPN. AIPN may request proof of enrollment for the submission to be considered.
