

AIPN Summer Assistantship Program

Summer 2021

The AIPN Summer Assistantship Program recognizes the desire and need students may have for academically rewarding summer employment. AIPN has established funding for one summer assistant position to support an Education Advisory Board member in their research project.

EAB members are invited to identify student candidates from their oil and gas related classes, with the EAB member selecting a research topic of relevance to the EAB member's own research, writing, and teaching.

How to Apply: EAB members should complete the application for the 2021 Summer Assistantship Program and submit a short letter explaining the nature and significance of the proposed research project, as well as the reasons the EAB member selected the student candidate for the research assistant position.

Candidates: Professor and student must be teaching or enrolled in one of the following schools of higher education:
